

ACQUIRE THE KNOW-HOW OF A SEASONED PRO IN UNDER 2 HOURS

“I’VE BEEN A PRO FOR ABOUT THIRTY YEARS
AND HAVE LEARNT A LOAD OF INVALUABLE TIPS”

SAM BROWN, MUSICIAN

In this fascinating and entertaining talk, Pete Cook, author of Road Rat's Tips, explains how to keep comfortable, safe, sane and employed as a gigging musician.

Pete draws on his 20 years as a professional, at home and abroad, detailing the often hilarious mistakes he and others have made, so you don't make them too.

From road etiquette and stage-craft, to how to get yourself home if you're stranded, and why you must NEVER leave home without Gaffa tape, Road Rat's Tips covers the surprising but essential things that will make all the difference to your reputation and employability.
